Third Annual Leadership Week Opens Aug. 28

College President

John T. Wahlquist Feature Speaker At Leadership

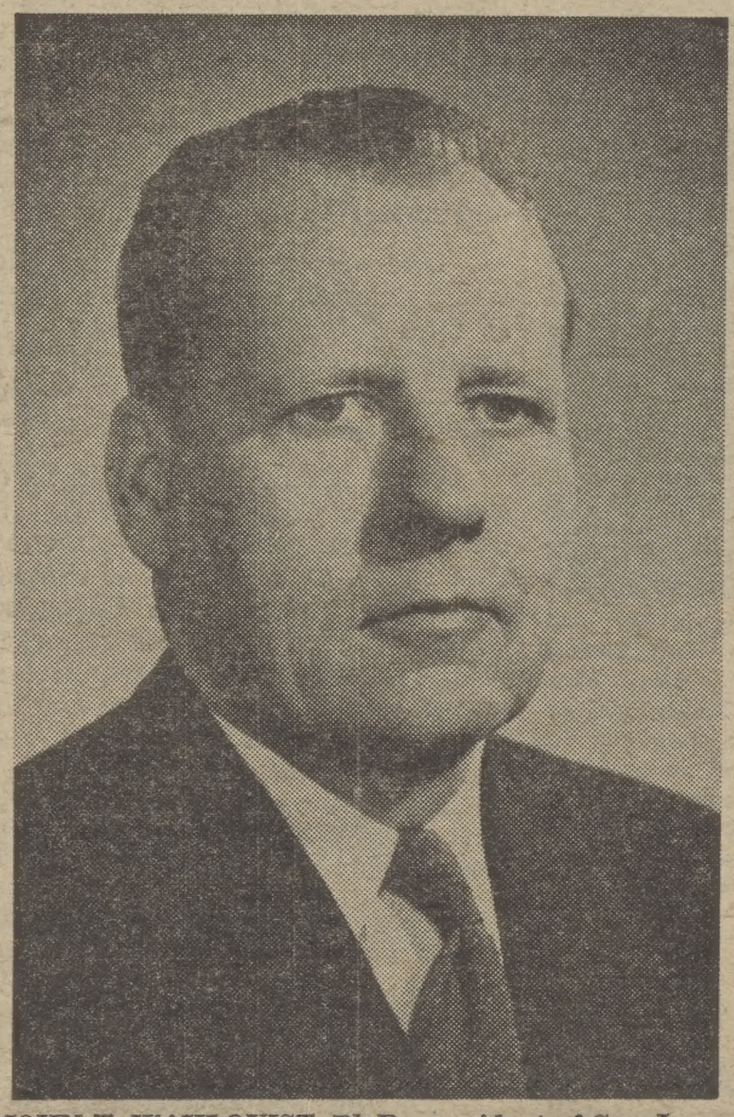
Dr. John T. Wahlquist, noted California educator and president of San Jose State College, will be assembly speaker Aug. 30, during the Northern Californian Leadership Week.

President of the fourth largest school in the eleven Western states, Dr. Wahlquist has authored numerous publications on his studies in the direction toward better teaching practices. "Teaching as the Direction of Activities," which was published while he was a member of the Deseret Sunday School board, is still being used as a text for Church teacher-training courses.

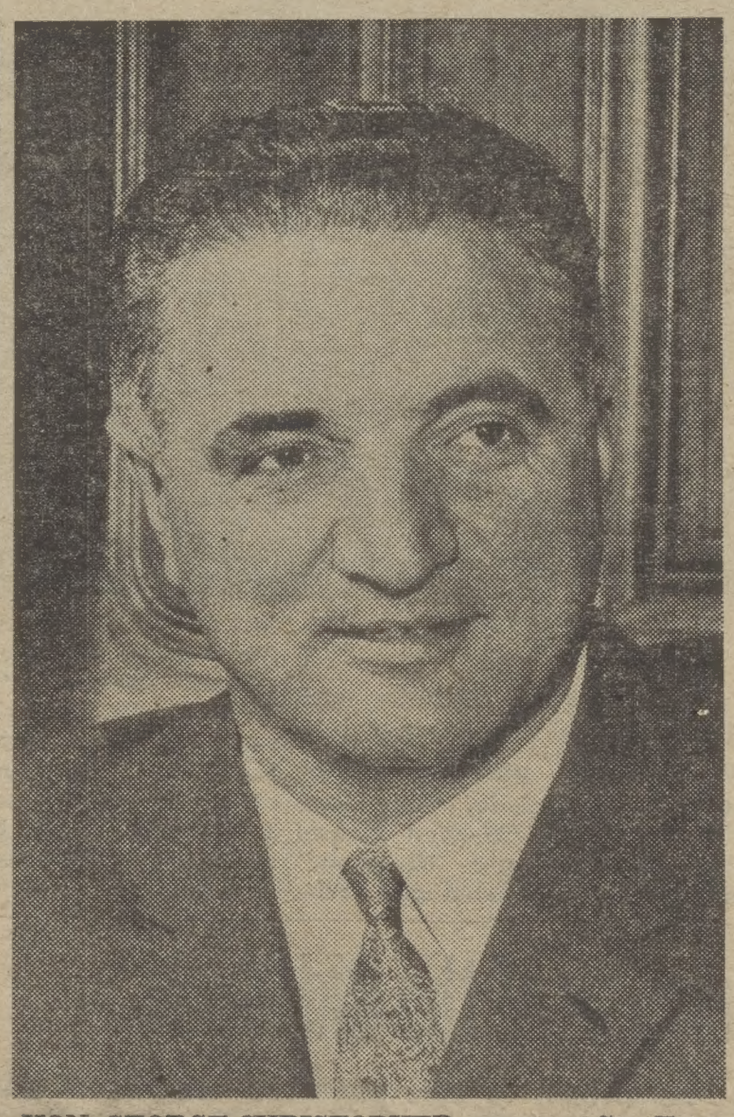
Born in Heber City, Utah, of pioneer parents, Dr. Wahlquist determined at the age of fourteen to become an educator and he has personally earned every penny spent in achieving his goal. He is married to the former Grace Dorius of Ephraim, Utah, and they are the parents of two sons, Don and Carl.

Dr. Wahlquist received his doctor's degree at the University of Cincinnati and has an impressive educational background which includes his graduation from the University of Utah with high honors. His major interest is the philosophy of education.

Most of Dr. Wahlquist's Church activities have been in the role of teaching or of training teachers. The MIA, priesthood quorums, and the Sunday School general board have benefited from his experiences in education. He has been a contributor to the Instructor, Children's Friend and the Relief Society Magazine.



JOHN T. WAHLQUIST, Ph.D., president of San Jose State College, will address Leadership Week Aug.30.



HON. GEORGE CHRISTOPHER, mayor of San Francisco, will be the final assembly speaker, Sept. 1.

Assembly Speakers

Expect Capacity Crowds To Hear Assembly Talks

Another group of exceptional speakers has been gathered for the 1961 Leadership Week assembly meetings each evening of the week of Aug. 28-Sept. 1. Capacity audiences are expected to attend all these meetings.

The identity of the keynote speaker for Monday evening, Aug. 28, has not been revealed. Chairman Dee Smith has announced nothing except that he knows everyone will be pleasantly surprised. The only hint he has given out is that the speaker will be a general authority of the Church.

The second assembly will feature James Mussatti, general manager of the California State Chamber of Commerce. Mussatti has been successful in his life, and is highly qualified to speak to a group concerned with leadership. His position as a leader of California businessmen speaks for itself.

The third speaker of the week is John Wahlquist, president of San Jose State College. Elder Wahlquist's main interest is in training teachers and inspiring them to better efforts.

From the ranks of Agriculture comes the speaker for the Aug. 31 Assembly, Louis A. Rozzoni, president of the California Farm Bureau Federation. Rozzoni came to America from Italy when still a boy. He knew no English at first, but he was industrious and built a reputation as an excellent farmer. Now he is the head of the most influential agricultural organization in the state, and is on the board of directors of the American Farm Bureau Federation, the national body.

The anchor man on the team of Leadership Week speakers will be San Francisco's popular mayor, Hon. George Christopher. A large crowd is expected to attend the mayor's appearance, which will put an inspiring finish on the week's activities.

Basic Information On Week Program

1. Leadership Week will be held at The East Bay Interstake Center, 4901 Lincoln Way, Oakland, Aug. 28-Sept. 1.

2. Registration for the whole week is $5.

3. Registration blanks may be obtained from J. Newell Christensen 4901 Lincoln Way, Oakland.

Leadership Week

S.F. Mayor George Christopher Final Leadership Week Speaker

The featured speaker in the final assembly program of Leadership Week will be the Honorable George Christopher, mayor of San Francisco. His speech will fall on the evening of Sept. 1, and is expected to draw a large crowd on the final day of Leadership Week activities.

Mayor Christopher's story is the kind of success story that could happen only in America. When he was 14, the age of Joseph Smith at the time of the Vision, his father had a lingering illness, and George had to quit school and go to work. He continued his education by taking night school courses. After nine years of night courses, he graduated from college as an accountant.

He was a Public Accountant for several years and then he founded a small milk company, which has grown into the largest independently owned dairy in the San Francisco area.

In 1945, Christopher was elected to the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, thus starting a successful political career. He was re-elected by a record majority, and in 1955 was elected mayor by a record majority vote.

Mayor Christopher has had an enviable record in his long term of civic office. His idealism and integrity are reflected in the decline in the San Francisco crime rate and in his personal efforts towards eliminating juvenile delinquency by supporting athletic groups and other youth activities. Former President Herbert Hoover referred to Christopher as "The best mayor of any large city with which I am acquainted."

Recently Christopher's San Francisco has been put into the national focus by magazine articles and especially by the 1959 visit of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev. Khrushchev invited Christopher to Moscow for a visit, and Christopher visited the Soviet Union in February, 1960.

Temples of the Old World

As a part of this series on temples of the Old World let us review a little of Moses, the great Hebrew prophet, and the things he accomplished through obedience to Jehovah.

The more we read of him the greater he seems. Only a man of dauntless faith and courage would have dared defy the tyrant who ruled the world-empire of Egypt and led his people out into a trackless wilderness. For two generations Moses was the acknowedged leader of these rebellious tribes. He must have had not only a strong body but also an iron will to have carried the mental burden of his people's physical and spiritual needs.

These were wonderful accomplishments yet the proof of his genius lies in the fact that he was able to organize the Hebrews so that his authority after his death increased rather than diminished. (History of Hebrew Commonwealth, page 45)

He kept the state essentially democratic; through his faith he attached his people to Jehovah by ceremonies so free from debasing forms that much has survived to this day. He established civil laws that future generations still live by. Jehovah gave his people through Moses a set of laws that even in our day is the greatest moral code ever given to man, "The Ten Commandments." It "was to guide the humble to justice and teach them His way." (Commentary of the Book of Mormon, Vol. 1, page 133.)

It is Moses's rare spiritual quality that made him such a commanding figure of all time; his wisdom, courage, devotion and unwavering trust in Jehovah. He is one of the greatest prophets of world history, speaking with a personal knowledge of God and His divine will for man. He was a spokesman for Jehovah, a prophet of the Hebrew race, with a faith so great he could inspire others with that faith—like a high mountain peak to which one lifts up his eyes to find inspiration. (Excerpts from History of Hebrew Commonwealth)

This is the quality of the man who through Jehovah directed the building of the "Tabernacle in the Wilderness and the Ark of the Covenant" and was one of the three prophets who appeared to Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery in the Kirtland Temple on April 3, 1836, restoring the keys of the gathering. ("Restoration of All Things," page 27)

Just before the death of Moses and prior to their march under Joshua to the promised land, Moses called his people together on the plains of Moab which is east of the Dead Sea. He told them of Israel's God and His care of them through the forty years in the wilderness and said, "Hear Oh Israel, the Lord Our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up." (Deut. 6:4-7)

He died in the valley of Moab at the age of 123 years. The great sculptor Michaelangelo was so inspired as he studied the life of Moses and designed a statue of him in Rome in 1545. It is one of the greatest statues ever carved and an inspiration to all who see it.

My Testimony

'Prove Me Now...'

By Mabel B. Liddell

"Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with a curse; for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

"Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, . . . and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it." (Malachi 4:8-10.)

Proving a law of God can be done by obeying it and enjoying the happiness, faith and security this course of action surely brings; or it can be proved in reverse, in a sense, if one is unwise enough to jeopardize his entire future by willful disobedience.

Interesting indeed is a comparison of the lives of two men in relation to the law of tithing with its great spiritual and material signifcance.

One of these men was a Mormon pioneer who, with his wife, trudged half way across the nation in a wearying trek to find safety in Salt Lake Valley in the early days of the Church. He endured well the privation of poverty and persecution but later on when prosperity came he stubbornly refused to give the Lord his share in tithes and offerings.

As a result he lost his faith and became embittered against the Church. Ignoring the sacred covenants he had made in the temple, he left the Church entirely and planted this spirit of rebellion in the hearts of his children so that they also turned their backs on the truth. He moved into Ogden where he became the owner of nine homes in addition to the lovely home in which he lived. Then the bank failed and because of his distressing losses he had to sell one home in order to meet his obligations. One by one he was forced to sell them all, until at last he had but two rooms in which to live. Old and broken, realizing his mistake too late, he pathetically requested permission to once again wear his temple robes in burial.

This Mormon pioneer's grandson, Frank Miller, a high priest now living in San Francisco, relates that, strangely enough, it was by obedience to the law of tithing that he gained his testimony of the truthfulness of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

During the depression he had been without work for some time. He and his wife Gay had two young children with a third child soon to be born. At this time, he had not been paying his tithing and attended church only on rare occasions. Then he received a small amount of money quite unexpectedly through an accident settlement. This was such a blessing to him and his family that he immediately placed the Lord's tenth in an envelope for the bishop and resolved that from that time on, he would always pay his tithes and offerings.

Two days later he went to Sears Roebuck Company to see if they could use him for extra work on Saturday when to his amazement the office girl said, "Mr. Miller, I have been trying to reach you by telephone all afternoon. We have a full time job for you beginning tomorrow!" He was sure then, and is more convinced today, that this was a direct and immediate blessing because of his willingness to pay tithing. His material blessings continued and he became more and more active in his Church duties. A year later he secured a position as assistant buyer for a Reno, Nevada, firm at twice the salary he had been earning.

Elder Miller says that the first check he writes is the Lord's share, when he receives his salary. He feels it a privilege to pay his fast offerings, ward maintenance and building fund contributions. He was one of the first to donate his share toward the new Oakland Temple and has been a dependable worker in various positions in the Church for twenty years.

His life has not been an easy one—he has had trials that would have thoroughly discouraged most men, but faith has held firm and his testimony has triumphed over them all. His patience and cheerfulness are inspiring and he and his lovely wife Gay, feel that their blessings have been great in the things that really count.

Frank Miller's one regret is, that he could never pass this precious testimony on to his father. He had been too completely blinded by prejudice and bitterness in his youth to discern the gospel truths.

Pioneer Play

Stake Drama Group To Present 'Promised Valley' at E. Bay Center

"We'll find our home again!" sings Jed Cutler, hero of "Promised Valley," saga of the Mormon pioneer trek from Winter Quarters to the Great Salt Lake Valley in 1847, which is to be presented by the Oakland-Berkeley Stake MIA in the Interstake Center the evenings of August 24 and 25.

Told through the story of Jed and Celia, his wife, "Promised Valley" opens after a hard winter at Winter Quarters with the saints anxious to move West. Jed, however, is called into the Mormon Battalion, and Celia is left to cross the plains with her mother and her father, who was crippled by the mobs at Nauvoo. Celia faces the prospect of bearing her first child on the plains.

This exciting pageant brings vividly to life the problems, heartaches, and courage of these early members of the Church. The story is told through song and drama in a manner realistic, poignant, and yet frequently laced with the humor of the unquenchable spirit of these people who subdued the wilderness and laid the foundations for great cities through their faith in God.

Inspired by the pioneer's habit of singing and dancing within the wagon circle each night to lighten the burdens of each day's journey, Dr. Crawford Gates and Arnold Sundgaard wrote this original musical production. It was first presented in the University of Utah stadium with Alfred Drake starring in the lead role as part of the Centennial celebration of the State of Utah in 1947.

Principal characters will be played by Sunya Evans, Dorothy Bench, Mal Duke, Larry Gilbert, and Ray Clovis. They will be supported by a mixed chorus, a male chorus and dancers.

Kirke Decker is the producer, Joyce Conklin, assistant producer and Francis Mayo is stage director. Acting as music co-directors will be Verna Johnson and Mary Johnson. Sparking the choreography will be dance directors Dagney Johnson and Sharleen Bunnell. The rest of the production staff consists of James Call as technical director, Carolyn Anderson in charge of make-up, Susan Amtoft, properties, John B. Coulter, business manager and James Reville as house manager.

Joyce Conklin, assistant producer, commented that this production has a wide appeal for non-members as well as members.

Camp Hermes Site

Day Camp for Guide Patrol Scouts Sponsored by Bay Area Primaries

For the third successive summer Guide Patrol boys of the greater bay area are enjoying day camp activities at Camp Herms in Berkeley.

On Saturday, July 1, 56 Guide Patrol boys from five bay area stakes gathered at Camp Herms in the Berkeley Hills for a day of scouting activities. These boys came from Walnut Creek, Hayward, San Leandro, San Francisco and Oakland-Berkeley Stakes with their ward and stake primary leaders and scouters. The day started at 9:00 a.m. with a flag raising ceremony and prayer, after which the Mt. Diablo council Scout Executives, Andy Balerude and Elmer Emmons, in charge of the Camp Herms summer program, outlined the program for the day.

After a tour of the camp, twenty-three boys and their scouting leaders left on a five-mile hike. While on the hike the boys cooked their noon meal and checked off several requirements toward their first class rank. Meanwhile, the other thirty-three boys remaining in camp worked on such requirements as compas reading, map reading, personal measurements, and following trail signs. Besides these accomplishments, highlights of the day included archery and swimming for all boys and handcraft activities for some.

The day closed with the awarding of neckerchief slides to all those who went on the hike, a flag lowering ceremony and a benediction on a day of fun and accomplishments.

There will be two more Guide Patrol Day Camp sessions this summer — one on August 5, and the third will be held August 26. At these two sessions boys and their leaders from Napa, Santa Rosa, Palo Alto, and San Jose Stakes will join with boys from the above mentioned stakes for more scouting activities and fun.

Hayward Ward

C. Reed Smith Bishop's Counselor; H. Hollinghaus to Stake Mission

A change has been made in the Hayward Ward bishopric, with C. Reed Smith being called as 2nd Counselor to replace Harry Hollinghaus, who will work as Stake Mission President.

Elder Smith was born in Bountiful, Utah, and grew up in Logan. He attended the Utah State Agricultural College for two years and the University of California for a year. He attended medical school at the George Washington University. He married Nadine Naisbitt and she and their first child, Julie, spent nearly a year with him overseas when he was stationed in China. Nadine taught English at a university there.

Besides Julie, the Smith children are Jane, Jim and Joanne.

Reed was Superintendent of the MIA when he was called into the bishopric.

The Primary had a picnic July 18, which featured a pioneer parade for the younger children, and a hotly contested softball game between the Lihomas and the Trailbuilders. The Trailbuilders won, 8-0. Eighty children attended the picnic, which was under the direction of Jackie Stock, president.

Among those who drove to Utah for their vacations were the Richard Bohns, the Shannon Murphys and the Lawrence Carlsons. The Carlsons went to the Salt Lake Temple for their endowments and to be sealed.

NEW PARKING LOT

Members of all the wards using the Hayward chapel are enjoying the fine new parking lot, which has been leveled, surfaced and marked off. This was a project started by Bishop McClellan before he left for his mission to South America.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Pincock moved back to their former home in Rexburg, Idaho. They live across the street from the campus of the Church college there and will rent rooms to young men students.

Sanford Pincock had been custodian of the ward chapel for nearly three years. Jim Johnson will replace him in that capacity.

The Andy Johnsons are moving to Vacaville, where Andy will build airplane wings and fly his own crop duster plane. Ruth will be busy with her three young sons and the second set of twins the doctor has told them to expect. The Charles Parkers have moved to Irvington Ward, in order to have a larger house for their growing family. A potluck supper was held July 14, to honor both families. It was at the home of Victor Simard.

SHOWER HELD

Nadine Smith and Madge Steward were hostesses for a luncheon-kitchen shower honoring Judy Ahlin, who will marry David Ream of Berkeley on Aug. 15.

Among the new members moving into the ward are the Joel Golds of Taylorsville, Utah. Elder Gold was serving as bishop of the Taylorsville Ward just before he came to California as head of the Beneficial Life Organization in eight counties surrounding the Bay Area.

Sister Gold has held almost every position in the Primary, including ward and stake president. She is particularly interested in music.

The Hayward Ward team became champions of the Hayward Stake Junior Soft-ball tournament. Members of the team are Vic Simard, Kay Bryson, Mike Raymore, Larry LaPray, Art Berg, Jay Crockett, Craig Bryson, Robert Shumate, Mark Nelson, Chuck Godfrey, and Steve LaPray. They were coached by Vince Maldanado, who also coached the junior basketball team to the stake championship.

Berkeley 2nd Ward

Gary Liotta to Southern States

Berkeley 2nd Ward had a farewell program July 9, for Elder Gary Liotta who is leaving for the Southern States mission. Gary, who is a prominent amateur golfer and B.Y.U. student, will be the 12th missionary to represent Berkeley 2nd Ward at the present time.

The ward is also losing several of its members who are leaving for work in other areas. The Marvin Turner family have moved to San Jose; the Robert Freeman family will be leaving soon and the Ferron Olsen family is returning to Salt Lake City where Ferron will be working at the University of Utah this fall. These people have contributed much to the upbuilding of our ward. A Relief Society party was held July 18, to honor Donna and Libbey's farewell.

Robert Nord and Peter Roland are the fortunate young men who have been chosen this year to join with other Explorer Scouts of the Stake for a trip to Japan on August 8.

Other ward world travelers are Don and Sue Boyack and Margaret Bodily who have left on a summer trip to Europe and there they will meet Cliff and Grace Boyack and continue their travels.

We have received reports that the Sconbergs are vacationing in Oregon and Washington, the Halls in Southern Utah and Alvin Carpenter just returned from a month in Chicago.

Reed and Eva Harker were very happy to have their children home to assist in celebrating their 25th Wedding Anniversary. Dorothy Ann and Eugene Bramhall came from the Los Angeles area, Reed and his family came from the southlands, and Rhean and Keith Griffin family were here from our area to visit with their parents on this occasion.

David Ream and Judythe Ahlin have announced marriage plans for August 15. A reception will be held August 25.

Gail Evans has been elected president of the Berkeley High School Girl's Association. Congratulations!

Jane Ricks had the good fortune to win 1st prize in the Russ Hodges Baseball essay contest consisting of two tickets to the All-Star banquet and game.

Not so fortunate was Lucile Cain who suffered a broken leg as the result of an accident that occurred while on a swimming party to the Russian River. Others that are recuperating from hospitalization in our ward are Preal Green, Sue Holmes and Elizabeth Cain. We wish them all a speedy recovery.

Cub Scout Kevin Flamm was given a prominent write-up in our local papers recently as the result of his quick action in saving the life of a 3- year old boy who had fallen into the pool at the Standard Oil Rod and Gun Club. Kevin is in our Ward's Cub Pack 95.

Interstake Art Show Scheduled For October; Original Entries Invited

Bishop Eugene Hilton of Oakland 3rd Ward has just announced plans for an Inter-stake Art Show, tentatively scheduled for October, to be held in the Interstake Center. Oakland 3rd Ward, sponsors of the show, are inviting entries in all categories of the arts and crafts, with a limit of three in each category by one artist. Work done from commercial kits is taboo. Time will be scheduled for those who desire to give demonstrations of their talents and skills. Further information can be obtained from next month's Messenger or from Betty David at KE. 6-3872 or Lulu McCarthy at KE. 4-4616.

Our ward members are showing real enthusiasm at the thought of a temple on "our" hill. Among those showing ingenuity at raising funds for the temple are Bill and Josephine Wheeler. They recently held a dinner at their home for fifteen ward members and raised $28.50. The guests felt that the delicious dinner was well worth the nominal price, and obtained a sense of satisfaction in contributing in such a painless way to a good cause. The Wheelers said that they are hopeful that each of the guests will be able to host such a dinner and that a chain reaction will be started throughout the ward.

Reed and Georgiana Facer recently left for Salt Lake City to attend the wedding of Reed's niece in the Salt Lake Temple. The happy bride and groom-to-be are Shanna Chesire and Elbert Dansie.

JOHN COULTER

National Blind & Home Products, Northern California distributors of blind-made products, has just announced the appointment of John B. Coulter, a president of the 247th Quorum of Seventy, as District Sales Manager.

Unintentionally omitted from the list of those who attended the Santa Rosa Dance Festival was the name of Monica Moran. Monica never missed a rehearsal and was a real stalwart at the festival. Our apologies, Monica.

Plans for the production of "Promised Valley" are exciting and enthralling many members of the ward. Strains of the music are drifting out of the chapel during rehearsals and titillating the eardrums of all who hear. With all the interest being shown, we can expect to see the ward attending "en Masse" on the 24th and 25th. of August. Warning to all other wards: Get your tickets early!

Our senior softball team is now stake champion and at this writing is practicing for the final games which will determine which team goes to Salt Lake.

Confirmed on fast Sunday was Mrs. Bertie Christine Barton.

Blessed by her father was Lori Alice Richards, daughter of Al and LaVonne Richards.

Former Patriarch

Hiltons Return from Polynesia

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hilton have returned to Oakland after two years spent in church schools in Hawaii and New Zealand on a teaching mission.

Dr. Hilton is well known for the many church positions he has held in the San Francisco, Oakland, and Oakland-Berkeley Stake, the latest being Patriarch of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake. Sister Hilton has also been active in the Church all of her life, having served one mission in the Eastern States where she met Elder Hilton, who was her district president, another with him in Great Britain in 1950-1952 as well as the most recent mission with the Polynesian peoples. She has also held various positions of responsibility in the auxiliary organizations of the church.

When the Hiltons arrived in Hawaii, the church school was accepted only as a two year college. Brother Hilton was instrumental in accrediting the school as a four year college. Twenty-two were graduated this year with their four-year degrees and they all were from the department of Education.

On Tonga, which includes three small islands, they found two towns named Navu. The natives had named them years ago with no contact with Mormons. Evidently Book of Mormon names had traveled in the remote past from Central America to Tonga.

Elder Hilton says it is his opinion that the Lord has great love for the peoples of the islands of the sea. In fact, one of the earliest missions of the church occurred when Brother Parley P. Pratt was sent to Tahiti. Many early missionaries of other faiths, and visiting sailors brought diseases and bad ways to the natives, and yet today these islands are largely LDS and these members are among the most faithful in the Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilton expressed their appreciation at being home again, especially since nine new grandchildren were born since they left, bringing the total to forty-two.

J. Chapin To Hong Kong Mission; Franses, Kathy Giese in Accident

James Chapin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lewis Bock, of San Leandro Ward, has been called on a mission to Hong Kong.

Mrs. Frances Giese and her daughter Kathy were in a bad auto accident early in June when the brakes on their car failed on a steep hill. To avoid crashing into the traffic on MacArthur Blvd., Sister Giese tried to stop her car by hitting a telephone pole. She was bruised badly and one leg broken in two places. Kathy received a brain concussion, a broken leg, and facial cuts. They are in Highland Hospital on the road to recovery but will be there for quite some time yet and will appreciate visitors.

Christina Pitcher and Anadeane Kiser were sustained as teachers in the Mutual Improvement Association.

Boyd Raymond Silver, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward John Silver was blessed on June 4, 1961, by Alden F. Lamph.

'MUTUAL MARRIEDS'

In June the "Mutual Marrieds" met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell V. Heath where they viewed two movies which were procurred and shown by Hal Pitcher. One was "The Man with the Thousand Hands," a film on the construction of the Kitimat Dam and power house in British Columbia. The second film was called "Bridge to the Future." It showed construction of the Glen Canyon Dam and power house on the Utah-Arizona border. Hal Pitcher spent two years on this project

Sunday evening, July 16, the "Mutual Marrieds" met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Green. Lt. Stanley N. Petersen, Assistant Director of Civil Defense for Alameda County, gave a timely talk on what to do in case of a nuclear attack covering such subjects as "Providing a Family Fallout Shelter," "What to do About Emergency Sanitation at Home," and told what to do about water and food showing canned samples of both. He gave out pamphlets with emergency instructions and suggested that at least one member of a family take a course in first aid. Punch and home-made cinnamon rolls were served as refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Painter have just returned from a three-week motor trip to Miami Beach, Florida, where Brother Painter represented his Local 70 in the Teamsters Convention. On the way there they stopped in Provo and visited Sister Painter's brother who recently graduated from BYU with a Bachelor of Arts degree and who plans to attend next year to get his Master's degree.

TEMPLE VISITS

They visited the Salt Lake temple and the Manti temple and planned to visit the one in St. George, but it was closed. Sister Painter did get to visit her grandmother in St. George. They report that the scenery on all of the trip was beautiful, and that the weather in Florida was very humid.

While the Painters were gone their seventeen-year-old daughter Linda took full charge of the home and the five younger children.

Many of San Leandro ward members are away on vacation or have just returned. Mr. and Mrs. William Callahan and daughter Sharon are visiting relatives and friends in Utah.

Mrs. Naoma Randall and her two youngest daughters, Beverly and Debra, are enjoying a three-week vacation at the home of Naoma's parents in Gooding, Idaho. She motored to Idaho with the Callahans and will return with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stoker are vacationing in Utah.

Sister Evageline Pedlar motored to Utah accompanied by her aunt for an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Eva May Dyke Honored by DAV, 3 Awards for Diligent Service

Eva Mae Dyke of San Leandro 2nd Ward has just finished serving as the state Department Commander of the Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary.

She presided over the 33rd state convention held in Santa Rosa June 21-25th. The California Disabled American Veteran Chapters bestowed upon her the highest honor the DAV has. A national bronze plaque was presented to her by State Commander Henry Veillette for distinguished service rendered. This is the first time such an honor has been given to a state auxiliary commander.

Sister Dyke also received a $100 life membership and memory quilt from the auxiliaries. Highlighting the convention, however, was the presentation by Dr. Harry Schulteis of Sacramento, representing the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, of a George Washington Honor Medal and a check for $100 presented to Eva who instigated the "Fly the Flag" campaign and served as chairman for the 14th District Disabled American Veterans. This campaign was judged by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge as one of the top 12 community projects throughout our nation. It consisted of three divisions; encouraging all citizens to fly the flag on patriotic holidays. Fifty star flags were made available through the courtesy of the DAV and Oakland Tribune at a reasonable price; an essay contest was held in grade, intermediate and high schools of Alameda and Contra Costa county with the grand winner given a trip to Hawaii to participate in the statehood celebration and the raising of the new 50 star flag last July 4; the campaign was climaxed with a mass flag dedication in Oakland, where mayors of various cities assisted in awarding bonds and flags to essay winners and all who purchased a new flag were invited to have it dedicated. Herbert Marsh, bishop of Castro Valley Ward gave the dedicatory prayer.

Sister Dyke tresures her pioneer heritage and the land that made the restoration of the gospel possible. She says that everyone should show more love and patriotism towards our country, by participating in patriotic affairs, teaching children their meaning and displaying the flag on patriotic holidays. George P. Miller, congressman, recently presented her with a new fifty star flag that has flown over the capitol building in Washington D.C. in honor of her Americanism activities.

San Francisco Ward

Col. Johnson Family Visits Idaho; Army Transfers Ward Leaders

By GEORGE KAIDES

Colonel Harold and Lucille Johnson and family of San Francisco Ward completed a two week vacation in Idaho visiting relatives and friends. At Burley, Idaho, several pleasant days were spent with Lucile's Father, Walter Short.

At Ashton, they visited Col. Johnson's parents and numerous relatives.

Like many other Army families in our Ward, the Robert L. Clark family are leaving. They will make their new home in San Antonio, Texas, where Robert will be attending school. While in the San Francisco Ward Elder Clark has been Senior Aaronic General Secretary and Seventies Representative, and Ethel has ben a teacher and counselor in the primary and Relief Society president. They both served as the Integration Committee for the Ward.

Frank Kelland, his wife Patricia Anne and son Frank Earl, are moving. Frank has been associated with the Coast Guards since 1946 and now is transferred to Alameda. His wife was baptized on Aug. 6, 1960, and his son, Frank, was baptized May, 1961. Frank Kelland has had quite an active part in the San Francisco Ward. He has been Scoutmaster, activity counselor, and Sunday School teacher.

The Honns, Frank and Mildred, are leaving our ward to move down the peninsula. They were baptized in 1957 in Redding while they were members of the Burney Branch. Five and a half months later they moved to this ward. They have three children, Fred, Kathy, and Ricky, all of them baptized. The Honns have been active in San Francisco Ward. Frank has been 2nd counselor in the Sunday School and is now ward genealogical chairman. Mildred has worked in the Primary since becoming a member of the Church. She was chorister in Burney, and then a teacher this ward. For the last two and a half years she has been 2nd counselor to Sister Goodrich.

The San Francisco Ward had baptisms during the month of July. Robert Walter Etherridge Jr. son of Robert Walter Etheridge Sr. and Brenice Pauline Jones were baptized by Elder Max B. Watson. Michael Louis Osuna, son of Salvador Osuna and Margaret Adelaide Eddy was baptized by Elder Donald Jay Lewis. Linda Lee Borrego, daughter of Miguel Gonzales Borrego and Margaret Adelaide Eddy was baptized by Elder Donald Jay Lewis. Elizabeth Stafford Wall, daughter of Frederick Atlee Hunt and Katherine Fuller was baptized by Elder Dale Albert Kimball. Robert Ward Wall, son of John Robert Wall and Diamond Belle Mills was baptized by Elder John Arthur Bailey.

There were also some blessings to bestow: Daniel Brent Rodgers, son of Brent Dolph Rodgers and Shirley Neil was blessed by his father, Alad David Nielson, son of David Louis Nielson and Mariko Takei was blessed by Bishop Thomas O. Call. Deborah Ann and Steven Richard, twin infants of Richard Henry Towne and Janet Hollingsworth Towne were blessed by the infant's uncle, Newell Hollingsworth Jr.

Daly City Ward

New Ward Finds Leaders Already

By Dorothy G. Hayes

"There is only the formality of final acceptance by the ward in several instances of those whose appointments are still to be made," said Bishop Samuel C. Chandler as preface to his remarks. "The new Daly City Ward is nearly fully organized."

Many of the ward officers have already been selected: As Sunday School superintendency,— Willard George, superintendent, Verde Hancock and Dresdon Marquadt, counselors, Irene Morrison, secretary.

Junior Sunday School coordinator is Virginia Kite; Marjorie Donis Junior Sunday School Secretary.

Officers in the Relief Society are Amanda Hurst, president, Ruth Snoland, 1st counselor; Helen Mahoney, secretary-treasurer; Helen Jeppson, Organist; Gladys Cashdollar, chorister; Lillian Anderson, Magazine Representative; Rita Heaton, visiting teachers message teacher.

In the Primary Pearl Terry is president, and Coleen Dale, counselor.

In the YWMIA Ilean Brinkerhoff is president, Dorothy Griffiths and Jean Baird are counselors, with Pat Robinson and Leila Murphy as secretaries.

Farris Morrison is the Aaronic Priesthood general secretary who will be advised by John Snoland, Lonnie Earnshaw, and Carlos Holmes.

Genealogy Committee Chairman is Evan Hunter, and The Ward Education committee chairman is Charles Earnshaw.

MISSIONARIES

Elder Scarth and Elder Day spoke briefly at the Daly City Ward Relief Society Work Meeting in July about the missionary program and how the Relief Society can help. The slogan, "Share the Gospel" was given as the concept everyone was asked to accept. When we invite our lady friends to the Relief Society meetings, we would be actively engaged in the "Sharing of the Gospel" and could be the start toward future membership in our Church. The immediate result is a bigger Relief Society, more friends being motivated to develop interest in the Church. The suggested initial invitation was the opening social in the fall. The elders were welcomed back for the luncheon served and they had the opportunity of meeting each sister and guests.

Under the direction of Elder Evan Hunter, the new chairman of the Daly City Ward genealogy committee, plans have been developed and brought to fruition to open the first of August in the Welfare Center, a Genealogical Work Shop. There will be some reference material available at that time with the anticipation that it will grow into a full fledged resource center. It is a nice large room with ample place to spread out papers and study genealogy problems. Appointments may be made for help in the workshop through your own genealogy committee chairman.

Contributions and loans of books from private supporters are being accepted to build up the resources of this research and study center. Librarians will be available to assist the patrons and direct them to sources of information. The library expects to assist study groups, cottage meetings and give personal assistance to its patrons.

The eighteenth of August is the date of a Ward Reunion to be topped off with a Smorgasborg Dinner and entertainment. The present membership and anyone who had at one time been a member of the old Balboa Ward are invited to attend and renew their brotherhood and friendships.

Earl Leroy Stevens completed the prescribed course of study and participated in the 66th commencement exercises of the College of Physicians and Surgeons June 16. Stevens expects to begin his practice in San Jose California. Sister Doris Jean Stevens just now visiting her family in Salt Lake City, plans to return to Daly City and prepare to move her little family to San Jose.

Berkeley 1st Ward

Two-Ward 'CAYA' Party Successful

By CHARLENE JENSEN

Berkeley 1st and 2nd Wards held a CAYA party and if you are wondering what a CAYA party is—you should have been there. The come-as-you-are comers had a wonderful time, winning prizes for the funniest, most embarrasing, cutest, etc. Ribbon sandwiches with punch and potato chips filled the menu and the decorations were on a garden theme.

Janet Williams, Jimmy and Helma Strebel were among those that were in charge of making and placing a three-tiered waterfall, plants, sea shells and other natural scenery around the recreation hall. Paul Partridge was in charge of the floorshow which consisted of a trumpet solo by Bobby Basinger and a reading by Glenn Harmon, Jr. The masters of ceremonies were Jim Strebel and Paul Partridge. Marge Sabine was found leading the congo lines and other mixers.

Mrs. Adriane Carter was honored with a lovely poem at one of the girl's programs written by Beehive Judy Little and read by Claire Gardner. A special surprise birthday party honoring Adriane and the fine work she has done with the young people of the ward was held on Saturday, July 22.

The new organization of the YWMIA includes Janet Clyde, president, Beryl Harmon, 1st counselor and Diane Christensen, activity counselor. Alice Mae Mills is attendance secretary and Veda Allen, secetary-treasurer. Other new teachers include Dona Isaacson, who will be the new Laurel teacher in September, replacing Marty Condie who will be leaving the ward. The Mutual Study group promises to soar ahead under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. Grant Ellis.

SWIM PARTY

The new officers were off with a bang when the swimming party held July 13, at the Albany Pool was such a success. Some of the families having such a fun time were the Seegmillers, Eyrings, Glenns, Dukers, Basingers, Harmons and Austins. After swimming for an hour and a half, a shared picnic with everyone tasting everyone else's food was held across the street in the park. After a game of football by the girls and baseball with the boys the party broke up with "Good Night Ladies." I'm sure those who attended will say it was one of the best parties ever held.

The S. F. Giants had a few Mormon friends to cheer them on against the Red Legs on July 5. A crowd under the direction of Jim Gardner piled into a bus and off they went to Candlestick Park.

"Promised Valley" rehearsals are keeping quite a few of our young people busy. Sue Bailey, Marge Sabine and Claire Gardner have been chosen as dancers with Sue Evans, Hilman Strebel, Martha Duker, Miriam Osmond, Janet Williams, Karen Linschoten, Jim Gardner, Karla King, Vicki Hughes, Barbara Duker, Margaret Eyring and Barbara Ellsworth in special chorus numbers. Jim Strebel and Paul Partridge are technicians.

The Beehives, Scouts and Explorers had an enjoyable time at Adriane Carter's home for a special fireside on July 16. A record was played from Chuck Carter, one of our missionaries, and a special discussion followed with cookies adding to the fun.

The Sunday School announced a new secretary, Miriam Osmond. Miriam was previously Junior Sunday School secretary.

The new teacher's quorum presidency, Paul Partridge, president with counselors Robert Basinger and Douglas Bramwell, and Steve Glenn, secretary, will be set apart soon. Retiring officers Larry Odell, president and counselors Jim Arnold and Paul Partridge, with secretary Douglas Bramwell have done a splendid job in directing the quorum's affairs. Larry and Jim were both made priests a few weeks ago. The quorum had a full day horseback riding and swimming at the Napa Valley Ranch Club. They were accompanied by Spencer Palmer and Glenn Harmon, Jr.

Research Grant in Oral Biology At U.C. Med Center for Dr. Morris

By Betty Grommesh

Dr. Merle E. Morris, Assistant Professor of Operative Dentistry and Chairman of the Section of Pedadontics, University of California, San Francisco Campus, has been given a Teaching and Research grant for the year 1961-62 to study for a post-doctoral Masters degree at the U.C. Medical Center

During the time of his studies he will carry on a research project in oral biology that will form the basis of his master's thesis. The grant was awarded by the National Health Foundation and National Health Institute. These institutions are providing grants to health science teachers who are interested in broadening their knowledge of the basic sciences and their application to the health services and professions.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jackson of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, recently announced the engagement of their daughter Mary Helen to Carl Norman Larsen of this ward.

The wedding will take place in Salt Lake Temple after Norman receives the Melchizedek Priesthood. Norman is in the Air Force station at Lackman Air Base near San Antonio, Texas.

There were two picnics in the ward recently; the elders had one in Roberts Park and the MIA sponsored a family picnic at Redwood Park. Many of the ward members joined others for the outings and had a grand time.

Some of the younger set of girls have gone to Menzanito Camp. Those going were; Jean Fackerall, Judy Goldsmith, Nancy Haws, Kathy Kelley, Dorothy and Francis Lamph and Sherry Stein.

SCOUT OUTING

Our Scouts went for a overnight camp out to Carmel with Scoutmaster Bob Stein. As in other wards part of the scout troop is made up of non-members. The boys attending were: Merle Morris Jr., Gary Fruge, Donald Johnson, Berney Vigallon, George Hrapoff.

After an extended sickness Marjorie Mellor, now has a new baby girl. Marjorie's mother died quite recently and she has been in Salt Lake for a visit with her relatives.

Another new baby was born prematurely to Venida Makanski. The new addition will not be able to see her father because he died last December. The new baby spent its first weeks in the incubator but is now home with her mother, sister and brother.

Merien and Shirley Robins returned from Arizona where they attended the funeral of his father Kenneth Robins.

Our college students have returned home; Karen Shaw, Linda Goldsmith, Gayle Biddle and Susan Ongman. When they return to school this fall they will be joined by three of the four members of our ward who graduated this June. Joining them in their return will be; Joann Rounds, James Lamph and Sandra Shaw.

GENEALOGY CONVERT

William John McCreight was brought into the Church by the stake missionaries. He is 78 years old and the only survivor of known relations. He was one of 11 children born to Irish parents and none are living and neither is William's wife; he had no children. This man requested home teachers and insisted that they help him fill out group sheets for his ancestors as far as he could before he died. He was interested in genealogy and temple work for his relations when he felt that his health would not permit him to be baptized. His testimony grew stronger and recently he was baptized, not on steady legs like the young but doing what he knows to be right with faith enough to believe that his health would not be impaired.

Grover C. Orton, one of missionaries who brought this man into the Church, has worked with his wife and converted many to the Church. Their mission has only nine months to go. Brother Orton was recently ordained a High Priest.

Our Bishop and his wife, John and Mabel Drushal, have returned from their vacation and completed it with a visit to the Los Angeles to attend the wedding of her niece Donna Schipper.

Ordinations in the priesthood were: Kingston Hortstman to a teacher and Bruce Anderson to the office of priest. Bruce has been away attending school out of town.

Southern States

Chris Jefferies Heads District

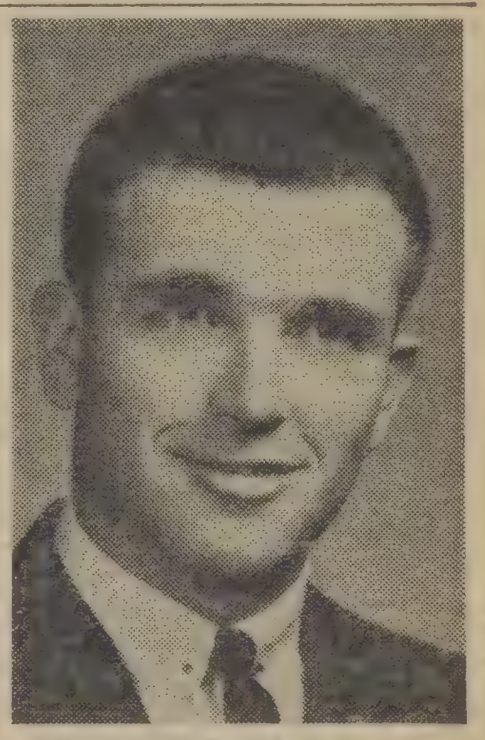
Chris Jefferies has been serving as supervising elder of the Atlanta, Georgia, District of the Southern States Mission for the past five months. He has been in the field thirteen months and says the time is going too fast. Chris travels about 500 miles a week. They are working on the new mission program and having great success with it.

He writes, "I only wish I could somehow transmit some of the feeling within me of the enthusiasm I have for this plan, of my love of the gospel and the Lord. There isn't anything on this earth right now that I would rather do, than be out here in the mission field. Last month we baptized over 100 people. We're working for 200 baptisms in July and I feel we'll make it.

"After hearing Elder Kimball bear his testimony, an apostles testimony, the Spirit bore witness so strongly to me that I felt a literal burning within my bosom as spoken about so often in the scriptures. My testimony has grown strong, gradually, from study, prayer, and logic."

Chris gives this advice to his younger brother, and other young men, "If there's anything you do in this life, be sure you take the wonderful opportunity of serving on a mission."

His parents are Martin and Lucile Jefferies of San Luis Obispo.



SUPERVISOR—Elder Jeffries

The elder's quorum is still running the Work Pool to earn funds for the building fund. Anyone having any odd jobs to be done is asked to contact Tenny Walton at LU. 1-8719 before hiring it done.

Sister Nola Papa and son John journeyed to Utah for a vacation with relatives. On their return to Reno they were joined by Joe Papa. In Reno they visited with Nola's sister.

Grant Harris Receives Award

Grant Hyrum Harris, son of Zula Harris of Walnut Creek Ward, was awarded the Duty to God Award by Bishop Bickley in Sacrament meeting. Grant just turned sixteen, is a priest, and a Star Scout. He has always participated actively in Scouting, several times winning first place in Scout contests, and always attending strenuous summer camps despite the fact that in the last five years he has undergone five major operations.

Grant just finished second year high school where he is particularly interested in mathmatics and art. Last year he won first place in a religious art contest for all Walnut Creek Schools and sponsored by one of the Walnut Creek Service Clubs. At the present time he carries a paper route.

GETS AWARD—Grant Harris

Grant is the youngest of eleven brothers and sisters, all of whom are active Church members.

Missionary Conference

Elder Howard Hunter Sets Theme For Walnut Creek Stake Conference

By A. E. Gilbert

"Every member a missionary" was the theme stated by Elder Howard W. Hunter of the Council of the Twelve and repeated by other speakers at the recent Walnut Creek Stake quarterly conference at the East Bay Interstake Center, Oakland.

"Despite the phenomenal recent growth of the Church, the birth rate alone stays ahead of what the field missionaries can do," Elder Hunter said. "We need more missionaries and greater devotion on the part of all Saints. We could use 25,000 full-time missionaries.

"Every young man in the Church should plan to go on a mission and should be encouraged by all to do so. One way to bring this about would be for every girl to insist on marrying a returned missionary. This would avoid hasty marriages and make better men, better husbonds, better citizens, and better homes.

"In 1940 the Church had 7700 converts. Last year one mission alone brought in 7000! There probably will be 100,000 this year throughout the world. But, if each one of us would exert a very little effort, we could bring in a million a year.

"Peace will not be brought through human efforts, but only through God and world-wide obedience to His commandments," Elder Hunter said.

Dean W. Criddle, stake high council member and advisor to the stake mission and convert coordination, warned, "We are losing to inactivity one in every six new members. Every member of the Church has an obligation to prevent this loss. Convert coordinators can only lead and coordinate."

Bishop William F. Matthews of the Pleasant Hill Ward describes the successful fellowship program of his ward and its results. Pleasant Hill had 27 converts last year, 13 of them old enough for Church "jobs" of which they held 14, he said. Ward priesthood attendance was 46 per cent but the converts registered 70 and 80 per cent attendance at Sacrament Service, he said.

President Carl C. Rogers of the Stake Mission appealed for active support by all members of the "Share the Gospel" plan in the accelerated missionary activity.

President Norman B. Creer announced the Stake membership was 6563 at the end of May and 230 new members, 120 of them converts, had been added to the rolls since the last stake conference. The stake now supports 22 full-time missionaries in the field, President Creer said, adding that the goal was 40 for 1962.

Creation of the New Oak Grove Ward from parts of Walnut Creek and Concord 2nd Wards was announced by the Stake President. Bishop Ernest I. Adams, formerly of Concord 2nd Ward, will head the new ward with C. Lynn Davis as 1st counselor and William Rader as 2nd counselor. Bishop William E. Sutton was announced as Bishop Adam's successor at Concord 2nd Ward with James J. Gautier and Stanley C. Peterson as counselors.

Rodeo Ward occupied its new chapel June 11, and Danville, Lafeyette-Orinda, and Pleasant Hill Wards are proceeding with their building programs, President Creer announced.

In outlining some of the characteristics of a "good ward," President Creer included active participation in all meetings and activities by all the membership and every member with the job and doing it well.

Ward Scouts on Wilderness Trip To Shasta Forest, Mt. McGee

By LOIS H. BUTLER

The Boy Scout Troop 211 are planning a summer camp trip to Lake Eiler in the wilderness area of Shasta National Forest. Lake Eiler is one of a number of lakes in the primitive area around Mt. McGee. From the lake the boys will see Mt. Lassen to the southeast and Mt. Shasta to the northwest. Because of the difficulty in reaching the lake the boys will have the area much to themselves. They will take canoes and engage in water sports, also scout craft training, and merit badge study. They plan overnight pack trips to other lakes and Mt. McGee where they expect to find good fishing. On the way home they will visit Mt. Lassen Park.

Some of the leaders checked out the trip in July and found snow as high as a car and the lakes frozen. Glen Spencer is Troop Committee Chairman, Grant Cutler, scoutmaster, and Tom Johnson, assistant scoutmaster. Twenty boys and four leaders will attend. The boys earned the money for the trip. Dr. Preston Thompson will give physicals August 1, to all participating. The camp runs from August 11 to 19.

The Relief Society has three new teachers, Wanda Hilton for literature; Marjean Williams for social science lessons; and Virginia Muir will give the home management lessons. In July the work meeting was held at Fern Hahn's where a cooling swim was enjoyed along with work, lunch, and sociability. The officers were pleased with the turn out.

PRIMARY LEADERS

Vernett Jones is Primary chorister and Beth Sorenson, secretary. Jan Hilton will teach the Blazers. The Primary enjoyed their annual wiener roast at the City Park. Primary officers and teachers attended the tri-stake Primary Conference. Two General Board members were there.

The Sunday School has three new teachers: Bernadine Ayling; Jackie Crowell replaces Shirley Osborn; Ginny Uffins is teaching the college students. Irma Bledsoe took her class skiing July 8. Bessie Gilbert had a swim and barbecue for her class this month.

Karen Clark won first place on bread and Gail Schow won second prize on a dessert and third prize with cream puffs at the Stake Beehive Baking Contest held at Concord. Most of the Beehive girls participated in the contest.

The Mutual held a successful swim party at the Los Lomas pool. Helen Walker will be the new dance director and Cenella Rounds has replaced Sally Applegarth as Mia Maid teacher. Gordon McCarthy was sustained as activity counselor in the YMMIA. George Speer will be Explorer Leader since Dr. Opin is now a member of the Oak Grove Ward. George was released as deacon advisor and Glen Sorenson is his replacement.

The Senior Aaronic had a swim and steak dinner at the home of Herbert Hahn. Senior members, advisors, members of the bishopric, and their wives attended. After a swim and dinner Armand Mauss showed a movie. Albert Gilbert is general secretary.

DIABLO DEAN

Dr. J. Philip Dalby has been appointed Dean of Instruction at Diablo Valley College. He will be assistant to the Director of the College and will fill an important administrative position. Dr. Dalby received his doctorate in Education at the University of Oregon. Many of his family are educators. He has served on the Church Education Committee for Junior College Planning. Music is another of his talents and a subject he has taught at the College.

Gene Crowell baptized his son Michael Saturday as a Priest and then confirmed him Sunday as an Elder. Gene has been a member of the Church about a year.

Leo and Ruth Bobo with their five children returned to live in Walnut Creek a short time but once again have been transferred. They are now members of the Niagara Falls Branch in the Eastern States Mission.

Delmar and Enid Young with David, Judy, and Elizabeth moved into their new home in Ygnacio Valley and will now be in Oak Grove Ward. Delmar recently served as YMMIA superintendent and is now in the Stake Sunday School superintendency. Enid is Stake Mutual Music director.

Kent and Cenella Rounds and their six children moved here from Ogden; George T. Boam moved from El Cerrito; to Richard T. Stillson, Cecil and Janice Behunin and two children, and Bernadine Ayling are also new members of the ward.

Ward Junior Softball Team Wins Stake Championship, Division Hopes

By BETTY MOSS

Claremont Ward is proud of its junior softball team, which won the stake championship with a record of eight wins and one loss. They also won the Division A play-off game against Santa Rosa on July 15. Jeff and Gary Millward have done an outstanding job of coaching the team, composed of Jack Wilkins, Mike King, Dave Barry, Paul Barry, Robert Ahlborn, Gary Kaya, Greg McAdams, Bob Kossow, Joe Adams, and Pitcher Phil Millward who won eight games and lost none.

We are looking forward to the annual welfare carnival to be held September 16. Chairman Earl Smith says that this year's carnival will have the theme of a Chinese market place. A Chinese dinner will be served by the Relief Society. Each organization will sponsor a booth, among which will be a Christmas card booth. Plan now to set aside from five to nine on September 16 for our fun-filled carnival.

The Relief Society has been reorganized with Mari Kassow as president and Geneva Hess as a counselor. Many thanks go to outgoing officers Vi Wadsworth, LaVern Bain, and Delight Stephen for their fine work this year.

The MIA has been reorganized with Deanna Powell as president and Norris Finlayson as superintendent. We appreciate the successful efforts of Norma Thinger and John Anderson who have served in these offices until now.

We are saddened by the sudden death of Harold Anderson, a high priest and faithful member of our ward. After a funeral here, Brother Anderson was buried in Ogden, Utah.

Robert Ahlborn was selected from many Explorers of the Bay Area to be one of a company of Explorers to tour Japan this summer. There is some doubt as to whether or not he will be able to make the trip with his recently broken leg; however, it is an honor to be chosen and we are proud of him.

Ann Widtfeldt and her seven children are visiting with Bishop and Lenore Wood for a while. They are moving from Virginia to San Diego.

Scouts Paul Barry, Chuck Christensen, Bobby Morgan, and Vern Muhr sailed down the Russian River on their air mattresses during July. They enjoyed a good long ride and have the sunburns to prove it. Scoutmaster included.

August 16 is the date for the next rummage sale. Bob Lowe is collecting everyone's excess in his basement.

Richmond Ward

Earl Leo Amtoft New Counselor To Richmond Bishop H. De LaMare

By Mima Williams

Former Sunday School Superintendent Earl Leo Amtoft, was sustained in a recent sacrament meeting as the new 2nd counselor to Bishop Harold E. DeLaMare.

He is the son of Christeen Marie Andersen and the late Lars Peter Anderson Amtoft and was born in Salt Lake City, Utah. He married Emma Lavern Hawkins in Salt Lake Temple and they have one son and two daughters.

Susan, their youngest child recently won a teaching scholarship from the Contra Costa Fedaration of Teachers, and will be attending the BYU majoring in education. She was the only member of the Richmond Ward this year to receive her 4th year certificate in seminary.

The Amtoft family previously resided in Provo, Utah; Berkeley, Redwood City and Lafayette, California. He is Area Supervisor of the Maintenance and Construction Division for the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

Enthusiasm is running high, especially in the younger set since Berkeley 2nd Ward held its first official service recently in the new Richmond Chapel on Carlson Avenue. Once a month the Stake Saturday Night Dances are held in the auditorium under the supervision of the Berkeley 2nd Ward and are proving a huge success for the teenage crowd of the two wards.

The future is bright with plans for many joint ward events.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HEAD

"J" Melvon Hatch has been released as District President of the Northern California Stake Mission, and sustained as Ward Sunday School Superintendent with Joseph Antone Giovanini as 1st counselor.

"Missionary work is the greatest work one can do on earth", President Hatch said at the time of his release. He further encouraged his officers and teachers to accept the call as a stake missionary if they desired, and that he personally would try to find replacements for them in the Sunday School.

A greatly changed missionary program with a new approach was presented to the members of the ward. W. Glenn Harmon, 1st counselor in the Northern California Mission, was guest speaker, and others taking part included LeRoy Allen Simmons, supervising elder of the Oakland-Berkeley District; Elder Reed C. Wiggell, traveling elder; and C. Ray Balmforth, 2nd counselor in the Oakland-Berkeley District.

Twenty explorer scouts from the Mt. Diablo Council were guests of the U.S. Naval Air Station at San Diego for a three-day gathering July 7-9.

Representing Post 113 of the Richmond Ward were Life Scout Richard Tidwell and Star Scout Donald Esperson. They lived aboard the aircraft carrier USS "Lexington" and heard talks on vocational exploration, citizenship responsilities and Explorer methods.

Castro Valley 2nd Ward

Mutual Married Social Held

By Glenna M. Stephens

The first social for the Mutual Marrieds since the division of the Castro Valley Wards was held at the home of Joseph and Ercil Hall. A buffet supper was attended by a large group from Castro Valley 2nd Ward preceeding the Stake Dance.

The "Lihoma Holiday Mother and Daughter Party" was held at the Castro Valley Ward on July 28. Members of the Lihoma group will be advanced, and the Seagull group will go on to Mutual.

Daughters of Utah Pioneers of the Castro Valley Wards presented a special Sunday night program at sacrament meeting July 23. They were invited to sing at Castro Valley 1st Ward following the meeting. The DUP is seeking new members, so anyone eligible for this organization kindly contact Sister Eulalie Gatter.

Judy Ellen Fontana will be home August 26. Judy is attending BYU and is enrolled in the School of Nursing. This summer she has been at LDS Hospital in Salt Lake City, which is connected with the university program.

J. Russell Hall has been baptized and confirmed a member of the church, and he has received the Aaronic Priesthood. Russell is the new president of YMMIA.

Stephen Duarte was recently ordained a deacon.

Randy Castro was baptized and confirmed a member of the Church. Jon Berry and Michelle Winter were baptized.

Dixie Facer is home from the hospital after undergoing surgery.
